

HENRY MOORE'S ICONIC SCULPTURES IN AN IDYLIC COUNTRYSIDE SETTING WEDNESDAY, 24 JULY, 2019

Spend a day at PERRY GREEN visiting the former home of the artist and his family in the company of friendly and knowledgeable guides. This will include a tour of Hoglands, the house lived in by the artist and his family for over 40 years, its flower garden, his studios, and a collection of nearly 7,500 drawings produced over 7 decades. One of the charms of the site are its 70 acres of gardens and fields studded with Moore's monumental sculptures.

THE VISIT

8.45am (prompt) Departure from Baker's Yard. Arrive 15 minutes before departure to pay £3 for carpark (organiser will collect).

10.45am Guided visits to Hoglands begin.

4pm (prompt) Coach departs for homeward journey

Refreshments There is a café in the Visitor Centre serving coffee, light lunches, tea and cakes. For more substantial meals The Hoops pub is just across the green. Or bring a picnic.
