

Chairman's Note

It was good to see so many of you at the Festive Lunch at Knole Park Golf Club. This event has always been popular as it provides a relaxed get together with a good meal and the opportunity to catch up with friends. Thanks to Jim Purves for hosting us and Pam Walshe for the organisation.

This year marks the 800th Anniversary of Magna Carta; there has already been much in the news about this and the Third Age Trust are encouraging all U3As to celebrate the Government inspired event 'LiberTeas' on Sunday 14th June to precede the actual anniversary on the following day. I have been approached by the Chairman of Knole U3A to explore the possibility of both U3As collaborating on a joint event and the Executive Committee also feel that we should enter into the spirit of this important milestone in our history. This could take the form of anything we want but would require the formation of a small joint Working Party to plan and implement an event. If you would like to help please let one of the Executive Committee know so that we can ensure Magna Carta Day is appropriately recognised.

Food for the birds: Brian Nobbs

This talk reviews how birds obtain their food, directly from plant structures, by catching invertebrates or vertebrates – including other birds – or by feeding on carrion. One decision they must make is whether to risk staying to "eat in", or "take away" their food to a place of safety.

Meopham U3A

The plans to launch a new U3A serving Meopham and the surrounding villages are progressing well.

Six members from different U3As responded to the notice in local U3A Newsletters last September, and they have formed the core of active support, delivering leaflets and putting up posters etc.

The date arranged for the launch is Tuesday 14 April, 2pm at Meopham Village Hall. At that meeting, Chairmen of adjacent U3As will talk about various aspects of running the organisation, and we hope to inspire and locate enough members to form a steering committee, and also a good tranche of Group leaders. The follow-up meeting is Tuesday 16 July, same place and time, when the new U3A will go live, taking membership subscriptions and recruiting to Study Groups.

If you have friends who live in the area, please encourage them to come along. Word of mouth is still the best recommendation for new members.

What members are doing . . .

Observant members may have noticed two interesting newspaper items recently. In Borough Green, there is to be a new War Memorial, on a site yet to be decided. The memorial itself has been designed by Patrick Moore, and Ramon Higgs, of the Sevenoaks branch of the Royal British Legion.

Of course, many of you will recall that both Patrick and Ramon are members of Sevenoaks U3A, and for many years they each led a Sculpture group at Cricketts Farm. Patrick specialised in Modelling, Moulding and Casting, and taught members how to mix resins and finish their work to a high, professional standard. Ramon's Sculpture group carved pieces in wood and stone, and both groups went on to exhibit their work at the bi-annual Arts Exhibitions. We hope to carry more news when the site is decided.

Money Matters

Geoff Dalton, a Knole member and leader of the shared Money Matters group, which is attended by several Sevenoaks members, hit the headlines in January when he was featured in the Telegraph's Your Money section. The banner headline was Another Giant Insurer Underpaid Pensions for Decades. This item was also carried on the front page of the main section. Geoff's perseverance in arguing his case was admirable, and he has lessons that will be useful to most U3A members. We hope to have an interview with Geoff at a later date.

The Role of the Treasurer

Jim Purves

Greetings from your Treasurer!

It's great to have the opportunity to give you an update on the accounts and also about my role as Treasurer.

Firstly the accounts and I am pleased to report that they are, as ever, in a healthy state.

Each year we set a budget and this allows us to control our expenditure through the year and be in line with our annual forecasts. Over the past 5 years your Executive Committee has set a policy to operate on a small deficit every year which means there has been a shortfall of income against expenditure. Funds to cover this have been taken from our reserves, which under Charity Commission guidelines are too large and need to be reduced to about 50% of annual costs.

Our income is derived from two main sources, subscriptions and Gift Aid.

Our Expenditure falls under three headings: Third Age Trust, printing and postage and general group operating costs.

Printing and postage accounts for over a third of our total expenditure and this is an area where we can make savings by members volunteering to receive the Newsletter and other information electronically via the web/email.

In my role as Treasurer I maintain the accounts on an Excel spreadsheet, keep appropriate records and report to your Executive Committee on a bi-monthly basis. I deal with everyday matters such as issuing cheques for payment and making deposits to the bank where we have online access to our accounts. Expenditure and income follows a fairly predictable pattern so the accounts are very easy to manage. The majority of subscription payments come into our account by standing order and those who pay by cheque deal through our Membership Secretary so this means very little work for your Treasurer!

On average there are about 10 transactions a month issuing cheques or making deposits. In addition, on an annual basis, there is the on line Gift Aid application which has been greatly simplified and the preparation of the year end accounts for the Examiner which once again is an easy task as all the accounts are up to date on the Excel spreadsheet.

All in all this has been an enjoyable role to undertake and not at all onerous. I have now overrun my time as Treasurer so I am hoping that one of you might consider taking on the role (I am happy to work in tandem with you for the first few months) and experiencing an equally enjoyable time over the next few years.

Laptops

We have now replaced our second oldest laptop which means that there are two old machines for disposal. Our oldest laptop is still working but has the Windows ME operating system, and early versions of Word, Excel and PowerPoint. It does not have any Internet connection but could be a useful training aid for anyone trying to get to grips with the technology.

The second laptop has a fault in its motherboard but may be of use for spares to a technically minded person.

Both machines are over 10 years old but if anyone wants either of these machines please let me know otherwise they will be scrapped. Bob Ruffles 01732 461348

Tax, Care and Toy Boys

The speaker at our January meeting was Chris Dingley of Collective Legal Solutions. He spoke eloquently about wills, long term care fees and powers of attorney. He stressed the need to obtain good quality professional advice to prevent potentially disastrous situations. Even though his firm will be more than happy to arrange home visits and act for our members, good quality advice is also available from many firms of solicitors. The meeting was followed by tea and cakes in the room at the back of the hall where tables and chairs were laid out. The use of that room instead of the cramped area around the serving hatch is proving very popular.

The team of helpers, led by Ann Howard (who has still not retired) and Di Latter, once more did a great job.

"Now I identify with Mrs. Robinson."

Virtual U3A

The Virtual U3A or vU3A is like a local U3A Group except that its activities take place only on the internet. vU3A is affiliated to the Third Age Trust and went live in 2009.

One of its principal aims is to provide the U3A experience for those older people who are isolated through geography, immobility or personal commitments eg carers and are unable to play a full part in a terrestrial U3A. However all are welcome and vU3A has members from around the world.

The vU3A does not create or deliver formal structured online courses.

Members of the vU3A are encouraged to form their own informal learning and discussion groups, choose their own topics and share their experiences in the social areas of the site. It follows the principles of participative learning which have made the U3A one of the most successful educational and social groups for older people.
